The end of all things is near. Therefore be alert and of sober mind so that you can pray (1 Peter 4:7)

LEADERSHIP It's always right to pray for our nation and its political leaders. This is particularly so when uncertainty is evident and we face decisions that will affect people's lives for a long time to come.

RAMADAN During this month, Dan & Vicky have been encouraging us to pray for their work. On Wednesday they focussed on people with disabilities. They write, "In some cases, individuals with disabilities are given up for adoption, entirely homebound, thrown out of school, or completely neglected by society. Healthcare was never fantastic in our focus country, but it has become terrible with the continued instability. Today, please pray for our interactions with people with disabilities and their families, educators, and health care providers."

BEC This week's opportunities include this afternoons TEA-TIME church, Tuesday evening final week of 'Christianity Explored' and the Men's Golf morning next Saturday.

PEOPLE Remember those who are unwell, concerned for elderly parents or have consultations at hospital this week. Julie Slater's Thanksgiving Service takes place on Thursday.

My simple exhortation is this: Let us take time this very day to rethink our priorities and how prayer fits in. Make some new resolve. Try some new venture with God. Set a time. Set a place. Choose a portion of Scripture to guide you. Don't be tyrannised by the pressure of busy days. We all need midcourse corrections. Make this a day of turning to prayer - for the glory of God and for the fullness of your joy. JOHN PIPER.
