

Discussion Questions 1 Peter 2:11-17

God has shown us mercy (2:10). Why is this so important to remember as we think about submitting to authorities and obeying the law? How will God's mercy shape your attitude to others?

God has established every human authority. How does this shape your attitude and response to the lockdown laws and guidance?

In what ways are you tempted to hold onto your rights? What would it mean for you to lay aside your rights for the sake of others?

What opportunities do you have to let your light shine so that others might praise God? How can others in the group be praying for you?
