

Discussion Questions for 1 Peter 3:1-7

If you are married, how has this passage challenged your current behaviour and attitude to your marriage?

Husbands – what best describes your attitude to your wife: lazy and selfish, or considerate and affirming? What will it look like for you to be more proactive in leading spiritually in the home?

Wives – what do you value and pursue more: outward physical beauty or inner spiritual beauty?

How does the example of Christ motivate you to such a counter-cultural way of operating within your marriage?

How can you support, encourage and pray for Christian women with non-Christian husbands?
