

Discussion Questions for 1 Peter 4:7-11

How should the 'nearness' of Christ's return affect your prayer life, in your urgency and what you pray for?

How do Christ's dealings with you help you to be patient, gentle and forgiving to others?

What would practising hospitality look like for you in your own particular circumstance?

How are you, or how could you start using, the gifts God has given you to serve others within the church? How could you be 'a gift to others'?
