

Discussion Questions for John 21:15-25

Jesus confronts Peter with his sin. What are some of the different ways we respond when confronted with our sin? How should we respond when we become aware of sin?

Jesus says that if we love him we will feed and care for his sheep. Lots of the ways we normally serve one another are not possible during lockdown. How can we serve Jesus' sheep in new ways?

Think about some of the different 'One Another' commands that we studied in Home Groups last Autumn. How might we do some of these things during lockdown?

Jesus knew what the future held for Peter because Jesus is in control of the future. At this time of uncertainty how does this encourage and reassure you personally?

There is much speculation about what the next few months will be like. How is Jesus calling you to follow him today?
